Let's Start!

What are they advertising? Do you want to go to the store?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about free time activities or personal likes/dislikes in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and say where places are in a city.
- I can read and understand an ad.
- I can talk about current actions.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you find out about events?
On TV? Online? From friends?
- What kind of events do you go to?

Let's Explore!

There's an ad on the radio! What's it for?

* "Ad" is the short form for advertisement.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

It's Saturday and you're not having fun? Well, all day today, new bands are playing at a great venue on campus! Music Inc. is presenting some amazing local talent! Who is playing? The Hashtags, Population Zero, Sounds and Furies and many more! Where are they performing? At Cambridge Hall. Find it next to Lennox Library opposite Brooks Residence.

When is the music starting? DJ Monkey House is playing your favorites right now! You aren't listening yet? Come on down! He's waiting for your requests! It's free before 3 p.m. Then pay a cover charge of $10 to listen till midnight! Bring a friend. Stay the whole day!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

The Present Continuous - The Negative Form

You use the Present Continuous tense in the negative form to say what is NOT happening.

Statement	Negative Form	Negative Contracted Form
I am reading the newspaper.	I am not reading the newspaper.	I'm not reading the newspaper.
He is sleeping.	He is not sleeping.	He isn't sleeping.
It is raining.	It is not raining.	It's not raining.
We are leaving.	We are not leaving.	We're not leaving.

Asking and Saying Where Things Are

You use a where question to ask where things are.

You use prepositions of place like in, on or next to to say where things are.

Asking Where Things Are	Saying Where Things Are
Where is it? Where is the venue? Where are the bands?	It's on campus. It's next to the library. They are in Cambridge Hall.

Examples:

- Where are the bands playing?
- They are playing on campus opposite the residence.
