Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: It's time to talk about sports!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about free time activities or personal likes/dislikes in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words with the short e sound.
- I can talk about likes and dislikes.
- I can make suggestions.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of sports do you play or want to play?
- What sports do your parents like?

Let's Explore!

Sally and John talk about a present for John's dad.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: John, your dad likes to play golf, right?
John: Yes, most weekends with his best friend, Warren. I don't like golf. Why?
Sally: Well, what about a new set of golf clubs as a present?
John: Golf clubs are too expensive! I'm a poor student.
Sally: Be honest, John ... you have more money than me! Buy him a polo shirt? A golf club, maybe?
John: Those are cheaper suggestions.
Sally: Where can we get the best deal?
John: Vanessa says that the bicycle shop has a lot of sports equipment.
Sally: Let's look for a present there and go to the coffee shop near the park.
John: Great idea! Time for a cappuccino! Shopping is hard work.

Let's Practice!
