

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Give him a book or a box set of his favorite TV show!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people, their likes and dislikes, homes or countries in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about likes and dislikes.
- I can express permission, possibility, or ability.
- I can talk about TV shows, films and books.

Ask your partner:

- It's your mother's or your father's birthday. What do you buy them?
- Would you buy them books or DVDs? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

What kind of books and movies do you like?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Can we go in here? I'm looking for a present for my dad.
Sally: I remember. It's his birthday next week.
John: Yeah! Maybe I can get him a gift here.
Sally: What are you thinking about buying?
John: He's reading a lot these days and listening to more music.
Sally: Books? Is he reading thrillers, sci-fi or mysteries?
John: I'm not sure what type of books he likes.
Sally: What kind of music is he listening to?
John: He likes classical music but he doesn't like opera.
Sally: What about a box set of his favorite TV show?
John: Hmm ... that's a good idea. I can watch those too!
Sally: And maybe a couple of films.
John: That's perfect!

Let's Practice!

Why is John looking at books?

Instructions: Choose all the correct options from the list.

Which sentences talk about films, TV shows or books?

- ☐ Is he reading thrillers these days?
- ☐ She listens to a lot of opera.
- ☐ They wear classic clothing.
- ☐ He likes mystery meals.
- ☐ He enjoys sci-fi.

Let's Practice!

Opera? I really* like opera!

*When you "really" like something, you like it a lot.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence.

1. He _____ like opera.
a. not    b. do    c. doesn't
2. Maybe _____ get him a gift here.
a. can I    b. can't    c. I can
3. I'm not sure what type of books he _____.
a. likes    b. like    c. lakes
4. I _____ those too!
a. can go    b. can watch    c. watch
5. _____ in here to look for a present?
a. We can go    b. Can we go    c. Can go

Extension Activity

Let's think about types of books and movies.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go to a bookstore and music store - online or in person.
- Look at the types of books and movies.
- Make a list of books and movies that you like.
- Look up new words in English. Say the types of books and movies out loud.
- Tell someone what type of books and movies you like.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I make a list of books and movies that I like.

☐ ☐

I look up words I don't know in a dictionary.

☐ ☐

I practice saying types of books and movies.

☐ ☐

I say what kind of books and movies I like.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- present (noun): a thing you give to a person on a special day e.g. He gets a lot of presents on his birthday.
- gift (noun): a present
e.g. She sometimes gives him gifts.
- thriller (noun): a scary book or film
e.g. I don't read thrillers at night!
- sci-fi (noun): short for science fiction; a book or film about life and science in the future.
e.g. We love sci-fi films with aliens and life on other planets.
- mystery (noun): a book or film about a crime
e.g. He loves to read mysteries by Agatha Christie.
- opera (noun): a play where words are sung
e.g. I don't like opera. I hate all the singing.
- classical music (noun): European music from the 18th and 19th centuries
e.g. He likes classical music. I prefer pop.
- birthday (noun): the date of your birth
e.g. She has a birthday party every year.
- to remember (verb): think about a past event
e.g. Remember our last holiday.

Learning Points

Using the Modal Can for Ability

You use the modal can to say you have an ability or know how to do something.

Can is followed by a second verb. i.e. can + verb

For the negative you use can't or cannot.

| Example                                                         | Meaning                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| I can cook.He can run very fast.              | I know how to cook.He is able to run fast.                  |
| She can't sing at all.I cannot speak Italian. | She is not able to sing.I do not know how to speak Italian. |

Using the Modal Can for Permission

You can use the modal can to ask for permission or give someone permission.

Examples:

• Alice: Can I smoke here?

Mark: No, you can't smoke here.

You can smoke in the garden.

• Ellen: Can we stop at this store?

Susan: Sure.

