Let's Start!

Shopping is easy. Deciding what to buy is more difficult.

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you like to shop for clothing and accessories?
- Why do you go there?
- When is a good time to shop there?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and say where things are in a department store.
- I can talk about colors and sizes.
- I can ask how much things cost.

Let's Explore!

Oh, there are some nice scarves!

* "Scarves" is the plural of scarf. It is an irregular plural.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: I want to get a gift for your father for his birthday.
John: That's not necessary, Sally.
Sally: Look! There's a small accessory store over there beside the shoe store.
Salesperson: Hello! How can I help you?
Sally: I'm not sure. Oh, that polo shirt is nice. How much is it?
Salesperson: That shirt is $105.
John: It's too expensive, Sally.
Sally: Oh! Look! Can we see that black and yellow scarf?
John: How much is it?
Salesperson: That is $89.
John: That's too much too. Where are some cheaper scarves?
Salesperson: Come to this area on the left. These scarves cost $39.
Sally: What about this black and red one?
Salesperson: It's $45.
Sally: Okay. No, wait, look at that tie ... !

Let's Practice!

Sally loves to shop. Help her talk to the salesperson.

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Select the correct answer.

The salesperson greets Sally and John.

She says ...

- ☐ How I can help you?
- ☐ How can I help you?
- ☐ I can help you.

The salesperson takes Sally and John to another area.

She says ...

- ☐ This area is at the left.
- ☐ Come to this on the left.
- ☐ Come to this area on the left.

Let's Practice!

Is it expensive?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use is $115, much is, cost $39, What about, Is $105, It's, It.

1. How _____ it?
