

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: What are you doing next weekend? Let's hit the town!

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can write about places and attractions.
- I can talk about future plans.
- I can write an e-mail invitation to my friends.

Ask your partner:

- What do you do on weekends?
- How often do you go see a movie?
What about going out for dinner?

Let's Explore!

John and Peter want to hit the town! They decide to e-mail their study group about it.

* "Hit the town" is an expression meaning to go out and have fun.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hey John, what do you want to do this weekend?
John: I'm not sure. I have some homework to do for next week.
Peter: How many exercises do you have to finish?
John: I think I have two or three left.
Peter: You do? I really want to go out.
John: I want to go out too. I need a break! Let's hit the town with our friends!
Peter: I think there is a music festival on Sunday.
John: Where?
Peter: In Boston. Fenway Park I think.
John: What's the weather like on Sunday?
Peter: Let me check ... oh great! It's going to rain all weekend!
John: Let's have dinner at Ricky's on the harbor or go to a movie.
Peter: Sounds great. I'll send out an e-mail.

Let's Practice!

What does Peter write in his letter to the study group? Let's find out.

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

Let's Have Fun this Weekend!
John and I are going to hit the town this weekend.
Want to join us?

Hey Guys,
Information:
Peter

Subject Line: _____

Greeting: _____

Introduction: _____

_____: We are thinking of going to the music festival at Fenway Park on Sunday. We can take a stroll on the wharf, have dinner at Ricky's and maybe watch a movie.

Question: _____

Closing: _____

Let's Practice!

Can you say where places are? Let's see.

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| 1. John and I are going | a. music festival at Fenway Park on Sunday. |
| 2. We are thinking of going to the | b. to hit the town this weekend. |
| 3. It's near the big movie | c. on the wharf. |
| 4. We can take a stroll | d. theater downtown. |

Extension Activity

Write an e-mail invitation to your friends to go out somewhere this weekend, like the movies, a walk in the park, dinner, a sports event.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Complete the e-mail below inviting your friends to go out.
- Talk about what we are doing on the weekend.
- Read your e-mail aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write an e-mail invitation to my friends.

☐ ☐

I talk about what I am doing on the weekend.

☐ ☐

I read my e-mail aloud about my plans.

☐ ☐

Subject Line:

Greeting:

Reason for E-mail:
(3 sentences)

Ask a Question:

Name:

Target Words

- to plan (verb): to decide or arrange in advance
e.g. Peter and I are planning to hit the town.
- wharf (noun): a place to walk near the water
e.g. We went for a stroll on the wharf.
- to stroll (verb): to walk slowly
e.g. I like to stroll in the mall.
- music festival (noun): an event; many bands play in one place
e.g. The music festival is on this Saturday.
- movie (noun): a film; something you watch in a theater
e.g. I want to see a movie this weekend.
- harbor (noun): place where boats are tied to land
e.g. There are many boats and restaurants down at the harbor.

Learning Points

Present Continuous Tense (Future Actions)

You can use the Present Continuous to talk about future actions that are planned or arranged.

When you do this, you often add a future word, or phrase.

Examples of future words:

tomorrow, next week, on Saturday, next year.

Examples:

- John and I are planning to hit the town this weekend.
- I'm meeting my friends at a concert tonight.

